VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1869 NO. 217.

The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

The following humorous article was handed us for publication by a friend. We do not know in what paper it first appeared, but it was copied, we understand very extensively. It is a good thing and we think it worth republishing. It happened before the war:

Scene at Chatham during the session of the Circuit Court, in the Commonwealth vs. Cassady, on a charge of malicious stabbing.

The venire being empanneled, and the jury solemnly charged by the clerk, the Commonwealth's Attorney having called, in support of the indictment, the witness, Buck Bryant, who being solemnly sworn, the truth to tell, testified as follows:

Question by Commonwealth's Attorney—Tell all you know about the cutting of the prosecutor, by Cassady the prisoner at the bar.

Answer.—Well, gentlemen, it was election day—'twas a dark, cloudy, wet sort of drizzly day, and says I to my old woman, I believe I'll go down to Ringgold and 'posit my vote. And says my old woman to me, well, Buck, as it is a sort of dark, cloudy, wet sort of a drizzily day, says she, hadn't you better take your umbrill. Says I to the old woman, I spec I had better take the umbrill. So I took the umbrill and advanced down towards Ringgold, and when I got down thar, Mr. Cole comed, and says he, uncle Buck, have you seed anything of old neighbor Harris? Says I to Mr. Cole, for why? Says he, he's got my umbrill. (The witness was here interrupted by the Court and told to confine himself to the actual fray between the prisoner and Cole, the prosecutor. In answer to which the witness remarked, in a tone of indignant remonstrance, well now, Mr. Judge you hold on, for I am sworn to tell the truth, and I am a gwine to tell it my own way—so 'taint for while for you to say nothing more about it. Whereupon the court and commonwealth's attorney, being anxious to get rid of the witness on any terms, told him to go on and tell the ta'e his own way.) Well, as I was going on to say, 'twas on 'lection day.—Buchanan and Filmo was running for the legislatur, and says I to my old woman, says I, I b'leve I'll go down to Ringgold and 'posit my vote. Says my old woman to me, says she, Buck, as it is a sort of a dark, cloudy, rainy, damp, drizzly sort of day, hadn't you better take your umbrill, says she? Says I to the old woman, says I, I spec I had better take my umbrill; so I tuck the umbrill and advanced on towards Ringgold, till I arrived thar.

Well, the first thing I did when I got thar was to take a drink of Buchanan whiskey, which was monstrous good, and says I to myself, says I old hoss, you feel better now, don't you? And while I was advancing around, Mr. Cole he come to me; says he, uncle Buck, says he, have you seen anything of old neighbor Harris? Says I for why? Says he, the old cuck's got my umbrill. After a while, I 'posited my vote, and then Mr. Cole and me advanced back towards home, and Mr. Cole was tighter than I ever seed him. And so we advanced along till we got to whar the road and path forked, and Mr. Cole and me tuck the path, as any other gentlemen would, and arter advancing a while we sariv to old neighbor Harris a-setting on a log with the umbrill on his arm, and 'bout that time Elijah Cassady (the prisoner) comed up, and we advanced on till we arrive at Elijah's house. Elijah is my n-ffew and likewise my son in-law—he married my darter Jane which is next to my darter Sally. Arter we had advanced to Elijah's house we stood in the yard a while a jawing, and presently two somebodies rid up on a hoss, which was Johnston before, and Whitfield Cassady behind—Whitfield and Kish Cassady being the same. Elijah and Kish is brothers, both b rn in the nat'rul way like anybody else's brothers, no gals between 'em, and both of 'em is about the same age, especially Kish, which is youngest. Kish war drunk, and Mr. Cole got to cussing one another about politix, and I advanced in the house whar was Elijah's wife, which is my darter Jane, which is next to my darter Sally. Well, arter jawing awhile my little n-ffew says to me, says he, uncle Buck, let's go home. Says I, good pop, so we p gged on together, and I heard somebody a calling me, but never tentioned 'em nor advanced. Well, I got home and was eating my supper, and Elijah, which is my son in-law, and married my daughter Jane, which is next to my darter Sally, arrived and said to me, uncle Buck, says he, I've killed a man. Says I, the hell you have. And this is all I know about the stabbing, because I want thar.

Josh Billings on the Mule.—The mule is half horse and half jack ass, and then kums to a full stop, natur discovering her mistake. Tha weigh more, according to their heft, than any other kreeture except a crow bar. Tha kant hear enny quicker nor further than the hoss, yet their ears are big enuff for snow shoes. You ken trust them with enny one whose life ain't worth enny more than the mule's. The only way tu keep them in a paster is to turn them into a medder jineing, and let them jump out. Tha are ready for use just as soon as tha will do to abuse. Tha hain't got enny friends, and will liv on huckle-berry brush, with an occasional chance at Kanada thistles. Tha are a mi dem invenshun. I don't think the Bible eludes tu them at all.

Tha sel for more money than enny other domestic animile. You kant tell their age by looking into their mouths, enny more than you kould a Mexican cannon's. Tha never have no disease that a good club won't heal. If tha ever die they must kum rite tu the agin, for I never heard nobody say "died mule." Tha are like sum men, "very corrupt at harte." I've known them tu be good mules for 6 months, just tu get a chance to kick sumbody. I never owned one, nor ever mean to, unless there is a United States law passed requiring it. The only reason why tha are pashant is because tha are ashamed ov themselves. I have seen edukated mules in a sirkus. Tha would kick and bite tremenjis.

Enny man who is willing to drive a mule ought to be 'xempt by law from running for the legislatur. They are the strangest kreturs on earth, and heaviest according tu their size. I heard tell of one who fell oph the tow path on the Eri kanawal, and sunk as soon as he touched water; but he kept rite on towing the boat to the next station, breathing thru his ears, which stuck out of the water about two feet six inches. I didn't see this did, but an auctioneer told of it, and I never knew an auctioneer tu tell an untruth unless it was absolutely convenient.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid up policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid to cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—Hon. Elizur Wright.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—Insurance Times, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The Brooklyn Life has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—Ins. Spec. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

CURIOUS VEHICLE AND SECRET SPRING.

Tristram Shandy once said to my uncle Toby, "that man was, of all other vehicles, the most curious and, at the same time, of so slight a frame and so totteringly put together, that the wonder was, that the sudden jerks and hard jostling it unavoidably meets with in this rugged journey through the world, does not overset and tear it to pieces, a dozen times a day, and it would be, but for the secret spring, which spring," said uncle Toby, "I take to be religion."

Now, the most curious vehicle we wot of, is in the shape of "our beloved Governor." The reason he "oversets and tears" to pieces so often is, because he is one of the curious vehicles made without the secret spring. The Governor has been upset in every undertaking in life. Now we will not say it was for want of religion, for the Governor has been a member of two Churches; besides, we are commanded to "judge not," but the Governor's great want was the "secret spring" of conscience. He's as void of conscience as a cow. If he has any conscience he wears it in his shoes, and not in his bosom. No man of his understanding could ever have involved himself in such gross inconsistencies, if he had been possessed of a conscience. When man commit blunders mankind are sorry for them.—When they commit crime even and repent, we may be sorry and even forgive them.—The Governor, in his paper of June 5, 1861, advertised, asking, "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

In 1869, he is ready to contribute his money for a monument to the memory of the man, whose head he had asked for and whom he denounced as a "despot, tyrant and fool."

The Governor turned the Mayor's Court into a mob, and by his speech, approving an attempt made upon our life by some dozen armed men, so stirred up the wrath of his secret leaguers that the police, in open court, presented a pistol, threatening to shoot the man who was guilty of a breach of the peace. In a few days thereafter, when only one man attempts to assassinate by shooting at us through the window, the Governor manifests a desire to punish the criminal. This is done to cover up the shame of having approved of the first attempt upon our life.

Except Judge Dick and Judge Settle, and "Hon." Windy Billy Henderson, indicted for mule stealing, there are no other educated gentlemen of the State that the Governor has not calumniated. The grave yards of every county-town in the State, holds at least one subject of his calumny.

This accounts for the Governor's preference and fondness for carpet-baggers. He feels that even the Lieutenant Governor holds him in contempt. The Governor once prayed in his paper, the Standard, saying, "God save the people of the West from such a man as Ted R. Caldwell."

The Lieutenant Governor, thinking he had lost character by voting tor Holden, against Governor Worth, found it necessary to apologize in his public speeches to the people, by saying he did so not from choice, but because he thought it the best policy. Holden has quit his prayers for the people of the west, and Caldwell now relishes that which he once took from policy or necessity.

The great weapons of the Governor's warfare have been falsehood and calumny. He never had a friend he did not betray. He never co-operated with a party that he did not desert. His first great want is the "secret spring" of conscience; his next great want is a friend whom he can trust, and upon whom he can rely.

One would think that the Governor had enemies enough, and that he would now cease to utter falsehood and calumny against the virtuous and the good, but he can't help it. He has lived so long by it, it has become his second nature. In the Standard of last week under the nom de plume of J. B. Neathery & Co., the Governor assails with falsehood and calumny, Judge Battle. He commands Mr. Moore to go "to his prayers." Why don't our curious, crazy vehicle cultivate a good understanding with the virtuous good—such as Judge Battle and Mr. Moore? They are not in his way politically. They never denounce him as they should do, and as Judge Reade, Judge Cantwell and Treasurer Jenkins have done.

Of Judge Battle and Mr. Moore, we suppose it might have been said, as Dr. Johnson said of Sir Joshua Reynolds: "he was one of those men with whom if a man had to quarrel, he would be at a loss how to abuse." The Governor was at no loss. He utters falsehood against Judge Battle and tells Mr. Moore to "go to his prayers, old man." The Governor thinks he can destroy these gentlemen and their influence with the people. You are mistaken Governor. The passion and prejudice of 80,000 negroes, whom you lead, are not so blind or so furious that you can sweep into indiscriminate ruin all against whom it is your pleasure to direct it. It is the flattery and fawning of Henderson, Stephens and Tourgee that comfort you, Governor, and the virtues of Battle and Moore that afflict you.

Wretched, indeed, must be the lot of a Governor who deserts the plain highway of conscience, candor and truth, for the dark and crooked mazes of intrigue, cunning, trickery, misrepresentation and falsehood. "Our beloved," under the name of J. B. Neathery & Co., assailing Judge Battle and Mr. Moore, may, as the wise son of Sirach has said: "Work his way for a time, like a mole under ground, but by and by, he bloundera into light, and stands exposed with all his dirt upon his head."

And thus is the "curious vehicle" upset for want of the secret spring—not of religion but of candor and truth.

THE FINANCES OF A GEORGIA RADICAL.

The following is a statement of the financial condition of a Radical member of the Georgia Legislature up to adjournment.—"Voting for Bullock's side in his fuss with Angier, in Greenbax, $37.50," was good enough:

FOUND!

On one of the streets leading from the Opera House in this city on Friday last, a morocco covered memorandum book, which contains among other things the following items of account in lead pencil, the publication of which may lead to the recovery of the property by the legitimate owner, who is requested to "prove property, pay charges, and take the same away," from the finder.

G. W. ANDERSON,
Lieut. of Police, Atlanta, Ga.

received Wages for session	$612 00
mileage	87 00
paiper envelopps pensels pens &c., worth at least	63 25

going to maskerald ball	50
" Varieties	50
Sun Drys and &c	17 50
	46 61

This indicates a healthy financial condition, though we should think that "47 apple Pise," and "224 ginger Kaiks" mixed in with "40 bolony sausages, 14 apples, 26 hair Cuts and other vitals," would force the grammatical member to assume the position of the Grecian Bend.

It recalls to mind "our hands" who have all quit their work and gone "to hum," some to New York, some to New England, some to New Jersey, and some to old North Carolina. The citizens of our city feel much relieved. Indeed, they no doubt feel quite as much relieved, as a deceased horse must feel, when towards night, the flock of impudent buzzards that have been tearing and insulting his dilapidated carcass all day long, betake themselves, full gorged, off to roost, and to digest their "pickings and stealings."

Let us see into the accounts of some of "our hands." Take a specimen brick—a carpet-bagger fresh from Cape Cod, or New York, or Sing Sing,—and let us suppose the bold adventurer, and hopeful aspirant for Senatorial honors, to have landed at some seaport town—Newbern for instance

We imagine a private memorandum of his expenses, &c., would run about thus:

"Rought 1 carpet bag, in Boston,	$1 00
2 calico shirts and 1 spellin' book,	1 00
1 spike tail coat and a fine tooth comb,	1 00
1 box paper collars and 1 handkerchief,	1 00
1 pair spectacles and a hoop skirt, (to sell,)	1 00
1 life of John Brown and "U. S. Speaker,"	1 00
10 brass rings, (to sell,)	1 00
4 cod fish and bolognes,
1 quart of whiskey, Lunch,	1 00
1 doz. dough nuts,
amount of expenses,	$8 00
sold 1 ring to a colored person,	4 00
" 1 hoop skirt to a colored lady,	2 00
" 1 calico shirt,	1 00
" 1 cod fish,	50
" 1 fine tooth comb,	50
" 1 paper collar,	05
loan of tooth brush 1 morning,	03
profits on the way,	$8 08
"made cleer,"	08

Thus armed and equipped for active service, with one carpet-bag and eight cents cash, our adventurer sets his long foot on the shores of the Old North State. After sneaking about among his negro brethren, making sundry sermons and speeches, undergoing many hardships for the "cause of the Union," and subsisting on whatever he could pick up, we find him, after the lapse of a few months, seated in the Legislature of North Carolina, rigged out in broadcloth, a gold fob dangling at his waist, his hair greased and perfumed, eating "pea nuts," looking as wise and knowing as a flop eared Jackass at an opera, and talking of his constituents, and guarding the constitution of his country and his State.

If we would look into his accounts, we would find in addition to $1,200 for per diem, mileage, stationary, &c., about $1,200 made in the Chatham R. R. business and for voting for various and sundry private and public bills, rail road schemes, increasing salaries, &c., several hundred dollars more.

And as to his expense account, it is about similar to that of our Georgia member, but with a few alterations and additions. As our member is a carpet-bagger, strike out "47 apple pise" and insert "47 cod-fish," and about 470 quarts of pea nuts, (which are an indispensable ingredient in Southern legislation now a days.) And add expenses to the Black Crook, White Fawn, Wyman's Gilt Exhibition, Dan Castello's Circus, Robinson's Circus, Murray's Circus, Negro Minstrels, Negro Tableaux's, Sargent's Troupe, Templeton's Troupe, and bar room, billiard saloon and sundry other expenses.

Thus we have fair specimens of the inside life of a Radical legislator, "down South." When there is nothing left to be pilfered, and the bar-rooms run dry, and the "pea nutt" crop gives out, we have hopes that Radicalism will die out, for the want of subsistence.

P. S.—We forgot to state that our adventurer bought 3 pistols, 1 club, 2 bowie-knifes, and 5 pounds of lead and powder, to assist in our murder.

IMPUDENCE EXTRAORDINARY.—A Northern Methodist paper published in Atlanta, Ga., says:

"When this session [in 1844] occurred there were churches and parsonages, all over the South deeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church. All such property belongs in law and equity to the Methodist Episcopal Church. If the forts, arsenals, and guns re taken in the war, belong to the United States Government, these churches belong in justice to the Methodist Episcopal Church."

That is to say, the name being changed the case is altered. No Christian could even think of stealing another man's property, much less do it. These Northern Methodist preachers need the impudence of devils to enable them to preach to honest men.—Richmond Dispatch.

We learn that Northern Methodist preachers are, generally, in the South, claiming the Methodist Churches built before 1844. Such a claim is not only impudent, but dishonest, wicked, and illegal.

In 1844 the General Conference held in New York, adopted a plan of separation for the peaceable division of the Church, allowing the separation of annual Conferences, Churches, Ministers and people under certain rules and conditions and the organization of the Southern branch into a separate Church, making, at the same time, an equitable division of the entire Church property, embracing Churches, parsonages, Colleges and schools, the book concern and chartered fund, between the two Churches. Under this authority of the General Conference, the only law making power in the Church, the Southern Methodists separated and organized the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Subsequently, the Northern Book Agents demurred to the claim of the Southern Church to its pro rata share of the book concern and chartered fund. Upon this the Commissioners of the M. E. Church, South, sued the Northern Book Agents in the U. S. District Courts. The case was taken up to the Supreme Court of the United States, which decided in favor of the claim of the Southern Church, and the Northern Book Agents complied, when forced to do it, with the decision of the Court and the plan of separation. The Court fully sustained the legality of the plan of separation, by which the two Churches have been bound and are still bound. Repeated efforts have been made through the various Courts at different times since, by ill-tempered individuals, to take the Southern Churches from the Southern Methodists, but we learn in all cases, the Courts have sustained the rights of the M. E. Church, South, under the plan of separation.

Under such circumstances, the attempts of Northern Methodists to seize Southern Churches, is superlatively mean and thieving.

It is understood that Mr. Victor Barringer will succeed Billy Coleman as Attorney-General in the event of Billy's acceptance of the foreign appointment tendered him. The movement for getting rid of Coleman, on account of his total disqualification for the Attorney-Generalship, has been managed with the Governor's usual adroitness. But don't breathe this in Billy's presence—no, not for the world.—Wil. Star.

The attempt to get rid of Coleman by shipping him off to Europe, we are told, is likely to fail. We have seen him on the streets recently in rather a fatigued condition, and it is said that he swears he will not accept a $1,000 Consulship. It would be a dear bargain if the government were to employ him, at any price, yet he is not a whit less qualified for the position of Attorney-General, than any other occupant of the State Executive department, from the Governor down, bating, perhaps, that he gets fatigued too often.

For the Sentinel.

RAIL ROAD MEETING IN WATAUGA.

According to previous notice a very large number of the citizens of Watauga county assembled at the Court House in Boone, on the 20th of April, 1869, (it being Tuesday of court week.) When on motion, Capt. G. W. Bradley was called to the chair, and H. Bingham requested to act as Secretary.

Capt. Bradley, on taking the chair, in a few very appropriate remarks explained the object of the meeting, to be to take into consideration the importance of connecting the Scab and of North Carolina with the thorough-fares of the Great West.

Maj. Malone, of Caldwell county, being present, and called on, delivered an able and interesting address, in which, he urged the very great importance of the measure under consideration.

The meeting was further addressed by Wm. F. Shell, Esq, and Col. Wm. Horton, and on concluding his remarks, the latter offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we contemplate with pride the early completion of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Rail Road, and that we pledge our united efforts to assist in the completion of this road.

On motion, it was resolved that a copy of these proceedings be sent to each, the Raleigh Sentinel and Standard and the Charlotte Democrat, for publication.

The meeting then adjourned.

G. W. BRADLEY,
PRESIDENT.

H. BINGHAM,
Secretary.

Gen. Grant has nominated, in the last forty days, from 1200 to 1500 new officers in the several departments, turning out some good men, but putting in some of the many incompetent and worthless ever appointed to office, since the foundation of the government.

We learn from the Newbern Times that on the 20th ult, Mr. James R. Steward, of Bachelor's Creek, discovered a swarm of bees in an old tree, and he, together with his brother, cut it down for the purpose of saving the swarm. In the tree they found a little honey, which they secured. On taking it home the whole family partook quite freely of it, and the effect was too terrible to describe. The whole number of persons that tasted the honey was seven. Of these two were not affected, three were made nearly or totally blind for the time being, and two, a child two years and one younger, died with in 15 minutes. The mother was so blind that she could not see the infant in her arms, but vomited after drinking salt water, and was better. Others were similarly affected, but all, with the exception of the ones already dead are again restored to health and sight.

Why some were affected to blindness, while others died, and yet two who also partook were not even made sick, remains a mystery.

IMPERIALISM.

We are not disposed to overestimate the significance of these enterprises. Certainly, there was a period, and that not more than a decade ago, when no sane man would have undertaken them. But the times are out of joint. The rank hot-bed of public corruption which now exists may well engender strange and unnatural growths.—The true principles of the government, the original character of our national institutions, have been, of late years, perverted, lowered and changed. Every department of the public service bears the mark of a progressive degeneracy. The road to the highest prizes in the national legislature is paved with gold. A golden key is relied upon to unlock almost any obstacle to schemes for filling the pockets of the few at the expense of the interests of the many. Financial and political plunderers are infesting all the highways of public life. It is estimated that the annual cost of the Federal government is $380,000,000, and of State governments $350,000,000, making a total of $730,000,000 annually. This is $160,000,000 more than the government expenses in Great Britain. On these enormous revenues, whisky, railroad, land, steamship and all other sorts of greedy and gorging rings are at work to transfer the public treasure to their elastic pockets. It would seem as if Congress had come to be looked upon as only a machine to legislate for the distribution of public plunder. The whole tendency of legislation is to build up privileged classes, to create artificial wealth, to make the rich richer, until fortunes which were once considered large are now looked upon as mere bagatelles. At the same time it is making the poor poorer, as is conclusively shown in Mr. Commissioner Wells's report, until many of them are so poor that hopelessness and discontent rapidly increase.

Even in the choice of the incumbent of the executive department there has been for many years an utter failure to realize the hopes of the founders of the government, and the President when elected, is merely the subordinate instrument of the party—the privileged class, as it were—who placed him in authority. In addition to all this, there has been since the war a concentration of authority in Washington such as was never dreamed of before, until the appreheusion has gained ground that the States have no rights which the federal government is bound to respect, and the most sanguine can assign no limits to future assumptions of federal authority. In fine, the war itself was conducted on such a grand and royal scale, with such an enormous outlay of treasure and blood, which the people found themselves no more able to avoid than they would have been under Napoleon or Alexander, that they began to doubt there own sovereignty, and vague ideas whether autocracy in form would be any more intolerable than autocracy in fact may have been infused into some minds. Do not all these facts show that we are drifting from the old order of things, and that the existing tendency, unless checked, is toward a complete subversion of our structure of government? In this point of view it may be that the appearance of such a journal as the Imperialist has some significance. May it not be the cloud, not larger than a man's hand, which indicates the direction of the wind and presages elemental strife? There are at least some persons who are willing to invest money in a newspaper advocating imperialism. Nor is it that journal alone which wants to put the neck of the republic beneath the heel of a master. From the number of extracts it makes from other papers, and from its considerable correspondence, exhibiting the same spirit, there would seem to be an Imperial Ring added to our other rings. Even in Congress a leading member, Mr. Banks, in a late debate, spoke of the acquisition of new terrrtory as necessary to the "unity of the empire." There was a time when such a phrase, used in a speech by a member of Congress, would have created amazement in those who heard it.—Baltimore Sun.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION IN BANKRUPTCY—OPINION OF JUDGE SCOTT.—Yesterday, in the city court, Judge Scott filed an opinion in the case of Lewis Cassard and others versus Conrad Kroner, which involves an important point in bankruptcy. The suit was brought on the 21st of January, 1869, to recover the amount stated to be due by the defendant to the plaintiff on open account. The defendant was summoned and appeared, and pleaded that he was discharged by the circuit court of Baltimore county, upon the 18th of May, 1869, from all debts due by him at the time of the insolvent laws of Maryland, which was on the 14th of January, 1868. To this plea there was a demurrer, and the defendant joined therein.

The opinion, after relating the above facts, says: "The demurrer raises this question: Does the act of Congress passed 2d of March, 1867, known as the bankrupt law, absolutely supersede the State insolvent law in this case? It was admitted that the plaintiffs and defendant were all citizens of Maryland. The Supreme Court of the United States has established these points: "As between citizens of the same State, a discharge of a bankrupt by the laws of that State is valid as it affects posterior contracts; as against creditors, citizens of other States, it is invalid as to all contracts."

"That the power given to the United States to pass bankrupt laws is not exclusive—Ogden vs. Saunders, 12 Wheaton, 369; Boyle vs. Zacharie & Turner, 6 Peters, 348; Boyle vs. same, 6 Peters, 643. In the recent case of Van Nostrand vs. Carr and others, determined by the Court of Appeals of Maryland at October term, 1868, that court says that when the legislation of Congress upon this subject has been exercised, it is paramount and exclusive, and suspends the operations of the insolvent laws of a State and the jurisdiction of the State courts over cases falling within the purview and operation of the bankrupt law.

"In the case now before me, inasmuch as all the parties are citizens of the same State, I must consider that this case does not fall within the purview and operation of the bankrupt law, and that the discharge of the defendant under the insolvent laws of Maryland is a bar to this action, and I will direct the clerk to enter judgment on the demurrer for the defendant." An appeal to the Court of Appeals was taken by the counsel for the plaintiffs.—Balt. Sun, 24th.

THE COTTON TRADE.—It is stated that the total receipts of cotton at all the United States ports for the week ending the 16th instant were 27,867 bales which is a falling off of some 6,000 bales from the previous week. The aggregate receipts since 1st September last reach 2,075,461 bales against 2,143,718 bales for the same time in 1867, an excess of 68,257 bales. The exports for the week reach 47,959 bales, some 3,600 bales more than the exports of the previous week, and giving a total of 1,385,619 bales in corresponding time last year, showing a decrease of 321,191 bales. The stocks on hand are 338,041 bales against 260,211 bales at the same date last year, an increase of 77,830 bales.

There are 757,000 people of foreign birth living in the city of New York.

RALEIGH ONWARD.—The impression is gaining ground that Raleigh is yet to be a city—a manufacturing, business city. Various improvements contemplated at an early day, seem to look to this.

The Haywood House, on the site of the Old Guion Hotel, is being pushed to completion. This will be one of the largest Hotels in the State and will be completed and finished in the best style.

Mr. Holleman will soon have his three story iron front store on Market square completed.

It is understood that B. P. Williamson, Esq., will erect during the present year a four story, granite front store, on the John Kane lot recently purchased by him on Fayetteville and Martin Streets. And rumor has it that John G. Williams, Esq., will erect a four story, iron front building next to Tucker Hall, rivalling that noble structure. Let them go ahead.

THE POLICE RECORD.—This is the title of a new weekly paper shortly to be published in this city. It will be devoted principally to the municipal and police affairs of Raleigh. Prospectus will be issued in a few days.

OLD NORTH STATE FOUNDRY.—This is becoming a necessary institution to this section. The foundry and plow factory are well managed by Mr. Sparks. The wants of community demand an enlargement of its operations. It is owned by B. P. Williamson, Esq. We are told that 1500 plows have been manufactured and sold from this establisment since the 1st of January.

COL. FORNEY.—Mr. Forney and thirteen others arrived in this city last evening and took lodgings at the Yarborough House for the night. This morning the party left for Wilmington.

The object of the party is said to be to make personal observations in reference to Southern lands and other chances for investment, and to aid in introducing capital and emigration. Mr. Forney declares his object is not political, yet it appears that the "trooly loil" here had received some notice of their coming, as the "small fry" about the Capitol very generally went down in carriages to do them reverence. Such a demonstration therefore, had the effect of making our people generally, eschew any special notice of the visitors.

DEMOREST'S "YOUNG AMERICA."—Of all the Juvenile Magazines, the children say this is the best, and we must say we agree with them. Its bright colors and its toys have the charm of being different from every thing else, while the stories and other sketches are exceptionably good, combining the useful with the amusing in a remarkably successful manner. Terms $1.50 per annum, with a premium. Address W. J. Demorest, 838 Broadway.

THE FRIEND OF TEMPERANCE, published in this City by Rev. R. H. Whitaker, has been enlarged. Four columns of reading matter have been added to its former size The Editor says, he commenced nearly two years ago without a single subscriber, without an office, or a single type, has battled successfully through all the difficulties, and to-day presents to the order of Friends of Temperance their organ in a new and handsome dress. We wish it success.

WE LEARN, says the Charlotte Democrat, that an old lady, Mrs. Reedy, died in the lower part of Iredell county last week, and a short time before her death, she cut three new teeth. Her age was 93 years.

Judge Brooks is holding his District Court for the District of Pamlico, at Newbern. The docket is said to be very full.

Strawberries are being sold at Wilmington at 50 cents to $1 per quart. They are sour.

On the 1st of May the people of Newbern will hold their municipal election. Both parties are bringing out candidates.

The Wilmington Star says, that so far only one death has occurred in that city among the whites, during April. We are glad to learn that Wilmington is becoming so healthy for white people. How is it among the blacks.

CAPTIONS.—We have on hand, for sale, a few captions of Acts and Resolutions passed by the General Assembly. Price two cents each or $1,50 per hundred.

SUPREME COURT.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
SUPREME COURT CLERK'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, April 27th, 1869.

The Supreme Court will assemble on the first Monday in June next.

The cases, from the several Judicial Districts, as arranged under the new law, will be called as follows:

First and Second Districts on the first week.

Fourth and Fifth Districts on the second week.

Sixth and Seventh Districts on the third week.

Eighth and Ninth Districts on the fourth week.

Tenth and Eleventh Districts on the fifth week.

Twelfth and Third Districts on the sixth week.

As no applicants for license to practice law will be examined, the docket for the First Circuit will be called on the first day of the term.

The arguments will close with the sixth week.

By order of the Court.
WM. H. BAGLEY, Clerk.

PONY CATCHING.—On the "Banks" which skirt our Atlantic coast, there are salt marshes attached, lying on the Sounds inside. On some portions of these Banks, large numbers of small ponies are raised. They are a small, hardy and endurable horses, raised without feeding and only brought up once or twice a year to be marked by the owner, and taken off, or sold, or suffered to remain to propagate. The 10th of May is the favorite time for the sport of "pony penning." It is said to be highly amusing and large numbers of persons go there to enjoy the sport and to purchase ponies.

MRS. FANNY DOWNING, of Charlotte, has been appointed general soliciting agent, for North Carolina, of the Piedmont Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

COL. ROBT. JOHNSON, son of the ex President, died on the 20 h, at Greenville, Tenn. His father received the news while on his way to address the people at Pulaski and Columbia, and immediately hastened home.

WE THANK our friends at Eagle Rock for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel.

STRAWBERRIES are selling in Mobile at one dollar per quart.

ADMIRAL JNO. R. TUCKER has arrived in New York, direct from Peru.

From an editorial in the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist of the 3d instant we take the following, only wishing we could give the whole editorial:

"Errors are never made sublime by the nature of their doctrine nor the quality of the men who adopt them; but are always logically ridiculous. At the present time there is no being so utterly absurd as Satan."

"Recently a large metropolitan church was dedicated, really to Gen. Grant, though ostensibly to God. Bishop Simpson, in the dedicatory sermon, as we are credibly told, spoke of the purification of the soul by the sacrifices of war."

"Whatever may be the condition in the creed, a military universalism, with political applications, is the religion of the masses in the North—preachers and the people."

TO MAIL CONTRACTORS.—General Smith, the second assistant Postmaster General, has issued an order to the clerks of the inspection division of his office directing that in the future they adhere strictly to the letter of the contract, in which it is stipulated that in all cases where failure occurs, the amount that would have been paid had the trip been performed in carrying the mails shall be deducted from the amount payable to the contractor, no matter what the cause of the failure may have been.—This order is intended to enforce more thoroughly and strictly the contracts for carrying the mails.

In the case of Pepin vs. Lachenmeyer, just decided in the Supreme Court of New York, general term, before Judges Clerke, Ingraham and Sutherland, it has been substantially decreed that judgments of courts in the late Confederate States, in matters not affecting political essentialities are to stand. Interest reipublicæ finis sit litium.—World.

At the assignee's sale of E. H. Cunningham's estate on Tuesday last, says the Asheville News, 2560 acres of mountain lands lying in one body in Macon county, were bid off at 22 cents per acre, cash, by Mr. G. B. Tennent, who, we are informed, acted in the matter as agent for a New York company. A much smaller tract was bought up by Mr. M. P. Penland at 17 cent per acre.

TEACH 'EM HOW TO MAKE BUTTER.—The Weldon (N. C.) News states that Mr. R. H. Baptist, of Petersburg, was in that place a day or two ago, showing the citizens how to make a pound of butter from one pint of milk, the receipt for which he charges one dollar.

An apprentice sailor fell from the "round top" to the deck, stunned, but little hurt. The captain exclaimed, in surprise, "Why, where did you come from?" "From the north of Ireland, yer honor," was the prompt reply, as the poor fellow gathered himself up.

EXPERIMENTS WITH SALT AS A MANURE.

There has been much written as to the value of salt as a manure, and many experiments made, and yet we are very much in the dark. Some experimentors say it is of great value, others have not been able to see any effect from its use, while still an other class have suffered great injury from its use. Extensive investigations have convinced us that these diverse and sometimes opposing results are due to variations in the quantity used and the manner of using, and the different in the compositions of the soils on which it had been used.

Salt in large quantities entirely destroys the fertility of a soil. The ancients understood this, and they sowed salt on the sites of destroyed cities to insure their being thenceforth barren. Virgil reprobated a salt soil, and Pliny affirmed that when "dispersed" over land it caused it to be barren. It takes but little salt spread on the surface to kill vegetation, and this is especially true of sour, rushy land, after draining. In England an experiment made by the "application in autumn of sixteen bushels of salt to the acre on such land showed it to be sufficient to kill the aquatic plants, and late in the following summer a most flourishing crop of rich grass appeared, of which the cattle were remarkably fond; and for many years the land retained and exhibited a superior verdure to the neighboring grounds."

Very elaborate tests were made in 1804 of the value of salt as a manure for potatoes. The salt was applied at the rate of seven and a half bushels per acre, in beds a yard wide and forty feet long, a single row being planted along the centre of the bed. One of these beds had no manure; one had the salt alone; the others were treated with various well known manures. Great care was taken to have the whole trial conducted with accuracy. The only point of importance that is left out of the account given is the manner of applying the manure.—Whether it was put on the surface or dug into the ground we are not told, but the results are given. The product of the salt manured row was to the unmanured row as 198 is to 157. Salt combined with other substances gave marked improvement, and alone it proved itself superior to everything but "Chandler's graves," used at the rate of 1 089 pounds to the acre; and the salt, combined with thirty bushels of soot to the acre, beat the Chandler's graves as 240 is to 220. Of all the twenty five rows, only those treated with lime at the rate of 121 bushels to the acre, and sawdust at the rate of 363 bushels to the acre, fell below the unmanured row.

This trial of salt brought out this singular fact, that it is of value when combined with other substances, so far as they were used in these experiments, except Chandler's graves. The salt probably entered into and "picked" the graves so that they did not decay.

The soil on which this trial was made is described as a ferruginous sand, brought to a due texture and consistence by a liberal covering of pond mud, and had been previously used as a nursery for raising forest trees. Four hundred grains of soil gave of sand of different degrees of fineness about 280 grains; of finely divided matter, which appeared in the form of clay, 104 grains; loss in water, 16 grains. There was about 18 percent. of carbonate of lime and about 7 per cent. of iron in the soil. There were no indications or gypsum or phosphate of lime. It was observed during the trial "that those tools where the salt had been used were visably and palpably moister than the rest, even for weeks after the salt had been applied." This word "applied" may indicate that the manures were sown on the surface. This condition of superior moisture continued until rain fell.

Other experiments have been made that gave no benefit from the use of salt, and after wading through the reports of a great many of them we to come this: Some soils have enough salt in them, and more added does injury. Such lands may be found along the sea coast, and where salt springs appear. Other lands are greatly benefitted by light dressings of salt. English farmers "scatter salt over their fields at the rate of two bushels per acre, with good success," and this quantity may be enough. Some men have greatly puzzled themselves over this fact, that light dressings are beneficial, while heavy ones do positive injury; and have finally said, "As salt in small quantities is known to accelerate the putrefaction of animal substances, and when in larger to retard it, and thus is useful in assisting the organs of digestion in men and other carnivous animals." * * So it may aid in reducing vegetable matter in the soil into food for plants, if applied in small quantities.

It is often stated that salt in sufficient quantities to kill wire worms, grubs, &c., that prey upon crops, may be sown on land without injury to crops. This is a wild mistake. Men may have sown, perhaps, five bushels of salt on an acre of corn land, and had no grubs and good corn. Such coincidences may happen. Five bushels of salt spread over an acre make a very thin covering.—George Geddes, in the Weekly Tribune.

GENERAL LEE seems to have had quite an ovation in Baltimore. Indeed, he seems to have absord attention, leaving the grand objects of the pilgrimage of the one hundred and fifty or so almost forgotten. Col. Harman overdid things.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diurstic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

A BEATEN ARMY.

BY OWEN MEREDITH.

We have struck our last blow, we have spent our last shot now,
And we pour here in protest the last drops of life,
All—save man's honest right—we have lost, they have got now,
And theirs is the triumph where ours was the strife

Ours, the blood on the bastion: our foeman's the flag it ere;
His the soil of our birth, ours, thy graves he insults;
And our brave dead are dumb while their murderers brag there
Of crimes praised on earth to successful results.

Be it so! though right trampled be counted for wrong,
And that pass for right which is evil victorious,
Here where virtue is feeble and villainy strong,
'Tis a cause, not the "fate" of a cause, that is glorious.

Here where heroes are vanquished, where robbers are victors,
Where the wronger the judge is—from Cæsar to God—
Scorned justice, preceded no more by her lictors,
Appeals for escape from the axe and the rod.

Be it so! We are saved thus from man's obligations,
For man's mere success to the means which deduct
From pure truth just so much as is owed to relations
Withychance, for what chance give—this world's usufruct.

Earth's success at the purest with stain of the earthy,
Leaves the white worth of truth where it touches it less;
But what worth has success in the cause that's unworthy?
We have failed! Be it so! We are pure of success.

And so man puts upon us no claim, to diminish
Our claim upon God—which is perfected thus;
Here our least gain begins where their greatness must finish;
They—the debtors to Earth for what Heaven owes us!

Graves are better than crowns thus. O, ever and ever
This bartering Eternity's birthright to Time!
God we give thee, unblemished our fruitless endeavor;
Earth we leave thee, unchallenged, thy shrine in man's crime!

WASHING COMPOUND

Patented sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cool or hot hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the nature of the dirt, water on wood en goods that they fibres do not contract and the influence, and your woolen garment is as large after boiling as before

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and drabs are as brilliant after washing as to fore.

Fifth the goods do not require any rubbing or pat ng washing to clean—that is necessary to a fine odorless boiling, and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

"It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he goes into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much in advance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts more paid up Capital of $1,000,000

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,035,570 00
Total Premiums,	350,117 03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 691
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,812 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their stuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot water and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleaning all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest cloth. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not roll them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

Let other inquire for cleaning a boiler full of clothes in twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three admired gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror but dreaded drudgeries. The cost of the Boiler will soon be recovered in the saving of FUEL AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
